Friday, March 21, 2008 7:00 - 9:30 P.M.

Topic:

PALESTINE/ISRAEL -- THE HUMAN SIDE

This evening we will view a documentary about the Martin Buber Institute, a unique center in Jerusalem, where 9,000 Jews, Muslims and Christians have successfully together been learning Hebrew and Arabic as a means to foster community, understanding, and human bonding. Many are hugging and displaying feelings of affection for each other. The film will be followed by discussion, facilitated by Joseph Ben-David.

Rev. Ben-David, a life-long Unitarian Humanist, is the last survivor of the historically important peace organization IHUD, headed by Martin Buber with the participation of such friends and colleagues as Erich Fromm, Hannah Arendt, Roger Baldwin, and other prominent human rights activists.
